Dear Educator:

WOLVES: FROM THE WILD TO THE CLASSROOM

A professional development opportunity for Arizona educators

August 4 – 6, 2006 (7 pm Friday to 11 am Sunday)

Sipe White Mountain Wildlife Area (near Springerville, AZ)

Walk in the tracks of the Mexican wolf! Join the Arizona Game and Fish for an exciting opportunity to enhance your curriculum with the study of Mexican wolves. Activities include a discussion with wolf researchers, field experiences, and a look at practical classroom applications. Registration opens June 2nd: $50 per participant includes meals and snacks from Saturday breakfast through Sunday breakfast, all program supplies and resources. Space is limited: minimum 20/maximum 45. No refund after July 14, 2006.

Sincerely,

Arizona Game and Fish Department - Education Branch
